Letter from the Commodore

Well our rainy season is officially over, so how come it is still raining almost every day? And just as a reminder that Hurricane Season isn't over, we have a Tropical Storm hitting north Florida

Thanks to Claire for arranging the winery event. I think that everyone had a good time with plenty to eat and drink.

At our last meeting there was quite a bit of discussion regarding club dues, type of memberships, etc. Pretty much the unanimous preference is to have two memberships, a single membership and a family membership, and also to prorate the cost based on when during the year the person joins. More on this at our next meeting.

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Commission will be hosting public meetings in late October to discuss proposed changes to fishing regulations in Biscayne National Park. Proposed changes include bag limit, size limits and creation of no-trawl and reef protection areas. The meetings will be at 6 PM at the following locations:

Oct 28 -Government Center, 102050 Overseas Highway, Key Largo
Oct 29-UF Extension, 18710 SW 288 Str, Homestead Oct
30-Knight Center, 400 SE 2nd Ave, Miami
